

International Week Flex Points

Candidates for the Global and Intercultural Engagement Honor can claim 10 points for attending six events during Western’s International Week. Students are required to get their International Week Passport stamped at each event attended to confirm attendance. Submit your passport to the Western International Booth in the UCC Atrium during International Week or at Western International Office. Email International Learning intlearn@uwo.ca to confirm that your passport has been submitted.

Name	Student Number	Email

International Week Experience

Name of Event	Description