

Atlas Program Template

Program Name/Title
Country/Countries
Host Institution/ Organization
Address
Description
Program Type	Select one of the following:
Faculty/Faculties	Select any of the following:
Subject Area(s)	Select any of the following:
Academic Level	Select one of the following:
Who can apply?	Students enrolled in the faculty/faculties listed above. Include any restrictions, etc. Students must have a minimum cumulative average of % to apply.

Language(s) of Instruction
Academic Information	Include information pertaining to the academic program(s) abroad such as: courses offered, course equivalencies, credits required, grading scales at host institutions, etc. Example: What courses do they offer? Courses [URL link] English-Taught Courses [URL link] Schedule of classes [URL link] How many credits do I need to earn? X = 2.5 UWO (students going for 1 term) X = 5.0 UWO (students going for 1 year) Grading scale at host institution [URL link]
Dates	Include information pertaining to the program dates abroad such as: host institution semester dates, host institution calendar, specific program travel dates, etc.
Housing	Include information regarding housing options or type(s) of housing available abroad.
Tuition/Program Fees	Tuition fees are paid to (Select one): Include details regarding any additional program-specific fees that may apply.
Approximate Living Expenses Abroad	Include information regarding any additional living expenses abroad that are not covered by program fees.

Financial Support	There are a number of scholarships and awards available through Western and external organizations to help fund international learning experiences. Visit the scholarships and funding page for more information. Students participating in this program may be eligible for specific funding through [include details as applicable]:
Host Country Research	Learn more about the host country, local environment, culture, climate, health care, entry/exit requirements, and security precautions related to this location by accessing detailed country guides through: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Government of Canada destination-specific travel information - International SOS (ISOS) – Use Western’s membership number (Western login credential required) to access the ISOS country guides
Safety Abroad	All students planning international travel should take the initiative to learn about their host country and take reasonable precautions to ensure they stay healthy and safe. This includes becoming familiar with Western's Safety Abroad Policy, pre-departure training, and Travel Registry requirements outlined on the Safety Abroad website.
Resources	Include any additional links to resources available if applicable (e.g. information from host organization, previous participants, etc.).
Application Instructions	Application deadline: Include any specific application instructions.